Is a piece of fine CUT GLASS. It is something which will not wear out and is an ornament when not in use. You will find here several very choice pieces of CUT GLASS marked to sell at prices much lower than their real value; and you cannot make any mistake in the purchase of one or more pieces. CUT GLASS, like Diamonds, always has a market value. Libby Cut Glass, Gorman Sterling Silver

WINNEMUCCA GIRLS DEFEAT GOLDFIELD

EVERYBODY REQUESTED TO ATTEND CONTEST IN GYMNASIUM THIS EVENING

The Winnemucca girls' basketball team humbled Goldfield last evening to the tune of 24 to 13. A number of Tonopah basketball fans went over to see the game and came back with the impression that the game this evening will be a close and hard-fought game.

The two preliminary games will provide the fun and the girls' game the excitement of the evening, and the high school gymnasium will be filled to overflowing.

After the game a dance will be given in honor of the Winnemucca girls. The floor is being put in good condition and the high school orchestra will provide the music, this being the first appearance of this orchestra.

The Winnemucca basketball team of eight girls, together with their chaperon and their coach, Mr. Jewell, arrived from Goldfield this morning. They were met at the train by the Tonopah coach, Mr. Cross, and his team of high school girls, and escorted to their headquarters.

The Tonopah High School Girls' Athletic association will serve a light banquet to the teams this evening in the kindergarten room. The entertainment committee has provided a pleasing program to be given during the banquet and everything possible will be done to make the visitors enjoy their stay in Tonopah.

J. GRANT CRUMLEY WINS DAMAGE SUIT

to Tonopah, when holding but one railroad ticket, so the necessity for a second as much more apparent to the railroad employees than to him. This court holds that under the circumstances no such necessity existed, as no proper change of schedule had been effected.

The evidence further shows that, though there was a good deal of argument between Mr. Crumley and Mr. Stuckey, the railroad conductor, that the occupants of the car were not much disturbed and that very little was known of the affair by them until the next morning. Mr. Crumley was annoyed and disturbed to such an extent that he lost his sleep and spent a part of the night in the smoking compartment of the car. The loss of clothing in the transfer from drawing room to berth was not serious enough to include it in the damages for the wrongful ejection.

What those damages should be is the difficult question for determination. Mr. Crumley testifies that there was a very considerable show of force and that he was ejected by force to some extent. This is positively denied by the railroad conductor, who asserts that he induced Mr. Crumley to leave the drawing room by telling the latter that he, the conductor, would have to make good the price of the other railroad ticket out of his wages if Mr. Crumley insisted on remaining there. This, it seems, was not strictly the fact as the railroad company does not always enforce this regulation, though no doubt it exists has such.

A peculiar feature of the testimony and a puzzling one is that Mr. Crumley testified to the presence of a brakeman of large dimensions who had apparently borrowed the porter's duty of fussing with the lights in the Pullman car while the discussion was under way, using for the purpose a stick or rod of rather threatening aspect. The conductor denies emphatically that any such individual was present, but admits that of the two brakemen on the train one answered the description Mr. Crumley gave fairly well. Perhaps it would be more accurate to say that from the descriptions given by Mr. Crumley of the brakeman he saw and Mr. Stuckey's description of one of the brakemen on the train, my conclusion is that they might easily at the same man. The porter had gone to bed and the Pullman conductor might, I think, not have seen the brakeman, as he was busy with his duties and not present all the time. So it is Mr. Crumley's word against Mr. Stuckey's. Judging from all the circumstances of the situation, I am inclined to think that the brakeman was there for possibly a short time, long enough for Mr. Crumley to get a good look at him and his stick, though not that he was there during the whole discussion.

MASONS TO WORSHIP AT ST. MARK'S CHURCH

SERVICES WILL BE CONDUCTED BY ARCHDEACON HAZLETT OF RENO

Archdeacon Hazlett of the Episcopal diocese of Nevada, will conduct services in the local Episcopal church on Sunday, December 26, that being the Sunday nearest St. John's day, the archdeacon has invited the local lodge of Masons and all their friends to worship with him. The services will be at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The subjects of the discourses will be "The Incarnation in the Light of Modern Science," at the morning service, and "The Masonry of the Inner Shrine" in the evening. Dr. Hazlett is well and favorably known, and the invitation to attend both the services is extended to the general public.

Mr. Crumley is about twice the size of Mr. Stuckey, the conductor, who was very insistent that the former leave the drawing room. However the ejection was accomplished, it was, in my view of the law, wrongful, and was accompanied by enough show of force and questionable argument to entitle Mr. Crumley to substantial damages, in connection, with, of course, the annoyance caused him, the loss of sleep, and the humiliation he was subjected to.

But the humiliation feature of it and the show of force hardly measure up to the description given of them in Mr. Crumley's complaint, for which reason I can not grant the damages asked after giving the question much asked, and have reached the conclusion, that $750.00 is a large enough sum to cover them.

The sum of $7.00 paid for the use of the drawing room, which has never been repaid, should also be allowed him. In this connection I think it proper to say that Mr. Crumley's retention of the drawing room ticket, though he also paid for a lower berth, when forced to take one, and his attitude toward the affair all the time while on the train, are very strongly in favor of his position that he was consistently standing on his rights, as he saw them, which to my mind gives his testimony an additional strength.

Judgment should be entered in his favor for $757.00 and his costs.

AN ENORMOUS AREA IS UNCULTIVATED

Hampshire and Rhode Island combined.

Any average quarter-section of this 18,000,000 acres of arable land under irrigation will support a family; on no inconsiderable portion of it, 80 acres under cultivation will support a family, and under intensive farming and fruit raising, in many instances 50, 40, and as low as 20 acres will support a family. Including natural grass meadows, less than 5 per cent or only about 750,000 acres of this arable area, is today under cultivation. But the farms that are reclaimed are an indication of the wonderful possibilities of the soil, latent until released to fruitfulness by the magic of irrigation!

BROKERS AND BANKERS WILL SURELY PLAY

SOME PRACTICAL JOKER TRIED TO MAKE BANKERS THINK BROKERS QUIT

No, gentle reader, the game of basketball between the brokers and bankers will not be called off, but will be played this evening according to schedule as one of the preliminaries to the contest between the Winnemucca and Tonopah high school girls.

It surely will be a 'scream, and it may be expected that there will be some tall rooting and much good natured rillery. Some joker, who probably did not belong to either team, sent the following anonymous communication to the Corporation bank this morning:

"To the alleged Tonopah Banking Corporation Basketball Team:

"On account of injuries sustained by several of our members while practicing, we regret to say we feel compelled to request a postponement of the game that was scheduled for this evening. Please notify the press also, stating that the brokers will meet your team at a later date for a side bet up to $1000.

"List of injuries of our team, as reported by our medical staff this morning: Skinner, bum heart; F. Brown, brain storm; W. Brown, night sweats; C. Epstein, spavin left knee. Substitutes also reported injured as follows: C. Blumenthal, loss of appetite; C. Leager, gout; J. Robertson, overtrained.

"Yours truly,
"BROKERS' BASKETBALL TEAM."

TO STAMP OUT RABIES EVIL

Governor and Mrs. Doyle left on last night's train for San Francisco. At Reno the governor will be joined by Dr. R. H. Mullen, member of the Nevada state board of health, and this morning at San Francisco they will attend a conference, called by Dr. A. Elbright, president of the state board of health of California, at which representatives from Oregon and Idaho of like boards will be present. The conferences called to devise some method to prevent and stamp out the spreading of rabies which is increasing to such an alarming extent.
